

Homeschool Day

in Historic Ridgeway
October 10, 2011

Programs

in alphabetical order:

Art of Tabletop Display—Cotton Yard Market –FOR MOM’S ONLY Mom’s will learn some great tricks for decorating and creating interesting holiday tables with professional home stager Jenny Price. Due to limited space, it is suggested that children attend Fall Crafting where they are welcome unchaperoned. 30 min. FREE (11:00 & 1:30)

Etiquette Tea –Laura’s Tea Room Enjoy a true Victorian tea party complete with fancy hats, scones, & tea treats with lessons in proper tea etiquette. Cost $5.00 per person, Strict age limit of 5 & up. Reservations required. Call 803-337-8594. Sorry, tea room is not accessible for strollers. 45 min. (11:30 & 1:00)

Fairfield County & The Civil War—The Century House with Pelham Lyles, Director of the Fairfield County Museum. Learn of life in Fairfield County during the War Between the States. FREE 30 min. (10:30 & 11:30)

Fall Crafting –Deanne’s Creations Create your own fall floral arrangement, complete with candy! Take it home to enjoy or share. Children over 5 are welcome without chaperones while Moms are at Cotton Yard Market. 30 min. FREE (11:00 & 1:30)

Fire House Photo Opportunity with Mr. Roy Hudson, one of SC’s longest- serving volunteer firemen with 70 years of service. Take your photo on Ridgeway Fire Department’s newest engine, named in Mr. Roy’s honor and talk with a true hometown hero. Receive a free fireman’s hat courtesy of Over the Top. FREE (11:30)

General Store –Ruff’s Old Store A rare opportunity to see inside a general store dating from the 1840s. See what life was like before WalMart! Learn the history of Ridgeway’s cotton economy. 30 min FREE (10:30 & 2:00)

History of Ridgeway—The Century House with Virginia Lacy, Chairwoman of the Ridgeway Historical Cmte. Hear Ridgeway’s rich history in general and the historic Century House in particular. 30 min. FREE (10:00 & 2:00)

Historic Walking Tour—Old Police Station Use the map of Ridgeway historic homes and buildings for a self-guided stroll through tree-lined streets and Victorian era architecture. Self-guided.

Mom’s Treat –Over the Top Mom’s can step in throughout the day for a special treat—hand massage and treatment, plus accessorizing consults. FREE

Ridgeway Museum—The Century House Tour Ridgeway’s newest exhibit upstairs in the Century House. Residents have donated family relics and treasures to help tell the history of Ridgeway. Open 10—2.

Sewing Class—Just Around the Corner Learn how to cut out a simple pattern and how to use the different functions of a machine. 60 min. Reservations Preferred Call 803-337-8034. FREE (10:00)

Scavenger Hunt —Old Police Station Be sure to grab a scavenger hunt sheet with your walking tour map to discover the weird and interesting of Historic Ridgeway. Courtesy of Ruff Furniture FREE Self-guided.

Steam Engine Model—Java Nook Books & Whistle Stop Café See the model steam engine in operation. A miniature look at a revolutionary invention. 20 min. FREE (10:45 & 1:45)